

Contents

Foreword	3
Bernadette Neville
Wrapped in relationships: how foster carers can help children in their care develop a coherent sense of self	5
by Katie Wrench
Rupture and Repair: responding to disruption and loss within fostering	14
by Róisín Stewart, Andrew Kennedy, Marie Fitzgerald and Katherine O'Daly
Siblings in foster care: using a trauma-focused perspective	30
by Christina Enright
Circle of Security® parenting: a gentle guide to attachments for us all, not just foster carers	47
by Anne McCluskey
Lifelong relationships: an exploration of the importance of the child-parent relationship for children in care	57
by Jacinta Swann and Dr Sinead O'Malley
Exploring the support needs of neurodiverse children in foster care, and of their caregivers	67
by Chloe McLaughlin
Book Review 1 - Care and Capitalism: Why Affective Equality Matters for Social Justice	83
by Kathleen Lynch
Book Review 2 - Outcomes from Open Adoptions from Care: An Australian Contribution to an International Debate	90
by Harriet Ward, Lynne Moggach, Susan Tregeagle and Helen Trivedi
Books reviewed by Anne McCluskey
Glossary	97